Accepts ATA Carnets For:

Exhibitions and Fairs

Carnet Advisory:

Goods imported for attendance at exhibitions and fairs must re-exported within six months from the date of importation. To remain longer in Bahrain, approval must be obtained from the Customs office of import prior to the expiry of the six-month period.

Bahrain does not allow partial or split shipments. ATA carnets are also not accepted for unaccompanied goods, nor for postal traffic.

Hours of operation of the Customs office at Bahrain airport:

Saturday - Thursday: 7:00am - 7:00pm.

If travelling by air, please plan accordingly.

If goods are not re-exported in a timely fashion (whether due to goods being lost, stolen, sold, destroyed, or for other reasons), penalties may reach a maximum of three times the value of the goods.

Customs Affairs must be informed of any carnet goods not being re-exported within specified timelines. The carnet # must be referenced in all communications.
